

Our generic packages have been created to give you an idea of how much your event might cost, so you can start to plan your budget.

However, as part of our Full Bespoke Wedding Planning Service (which is included in all the packages), we create and design every aspect of your day around your needs and budget.

We work with many different suppliers, who offer products and services to suit the varied needs of all our clients so we are experts at designing a perfect event to fit your style and financial requirements.

As part of our Full Bespoke Wedding Planning we include the following services:

Finding and selecting a suitable venue and negotiating price and menu possibilities.

Unlimited email and telephone calls during the planning process.

Consultation with you both regarding your requirements and creative idea suggestions

Help in choosing the correct suppliers to suit your needs.

Ongoing communication with the suppliers specifying your requirements

Arranging the payment of the services to the supplier

Regular updated communication via phone and email regarding your contracted services.

Creation of a personalized wedding portfolio.

Attendance of 2 team members on the day ensuring all suppliers' comply with their contracted services and that you and your guests have a stress free and memorable occasion.

We stay the whole day until the last contracted service finishes. We help ensure all your belongings have been collected and your flowers and cake have been taken care of.

We are on hand every step of the way to ensure that all your expectations are achieved.

We go home when our last supplier finishes his services to ensure you are satisfied with their service from start to finish.

A woman in a white wedding dress is shown from the side, looking out at the ocean. The dress is flowing and white, and the ocean is a deep blue with white waves. The sky is a clear, light blue.

Guest Concierge - Being on hand to help with other requests by your guests concerning the wedding such as hair, make-up and beauty, taking the stress away from you and your fiancé in the run up to your special day.
